

Barnard College Transfer / Visitor Student Community Service Day

WHEN: Sunday, September 7, 2008
9:30am—3:00pm

WHO: All new transfer & visiting students!

WHERE: In Central Park for Transportation Alternatives – a nonprofit organization in NYC devoted to making the city's parks safe for cyclists and pedestrians. The New York City Century Tour is the only urban century, and the biggest fundraiser for Transportation Alternatives during the year.

WHAT: The finish crew for the tour welcomes people back from the tour, helps hand out t-shirts and water bottles, serves food and drink to the riders, and cleans up the area. Refreshments will be provided after the shift is over!

WHY: Get involved in NYC community service, meet peers interested in volunteering, and spend some quality time with returning transfer students and a Barnard faculty member or administrator.

To participate, RSVP to wsimpkin@barnard.edu no later than Monday, August 18, 2008! Space is limited, reply early! All volunteers will be required to attend a training session during the New Student Orientation Program.
