NEWS TOO GOOD NOT TO SHARE

While we will not have the opportunity for collective clapping until September, we wanted to share with you the excellent news that three more faculty have joined the tenured ranks at Barnard:

Art History: Elizabeth Hutchinson
Asian and Middle Eastern Cultures: Guobin Yang
History and Africana Studies: Celia Naylor (currently a tenured associate professor at Dartmouth)

Feel free to congratulate them before or at commencement.

MORE REASON TO CLAP

Faculty Recognized at the Seniors of Color Celebratory Luncheon
Marcellus Andrews, Economics
Christine Cynn, Africana Studies
Celia Deutsch, Religion
Helene Foley, Classics
Paula Franzese, Political Science
Kaiama Glover, French
Jennie Kassanoff, English
Brian Mailloux, Environmental Science
Paul Martin, Human Rights
E’mett McCaskill, Psychology
Dina Merrer, Chemistry
Richard Pious, Political Science
Robert Remez, Psychology
Lesley Sharp, Anthropology
Timea Szell, English
Neferti Tadiar, Women’s Studies
Deborah Valenze, History
David Weiman, Economics
Guobin Yang, Asian and Middle Eastern Cultures
Administrators Recognized at the Seniors of Color Celebratory Luncheon
Karen Blank, Dean of Studies
Dorothy Denburg, Dean of the College
Nanette DiLauro, Director of Financial Aid
Lisa Hollibaugh, Associate Dean of First-Year Class
Christina Kuan-Tsu, Associate Dean of Pre-Law and Sophomore Class
Hilary Link, Assistant Provost and Dean for International Programs
Elida Martinez, Academic Counselor, C-STEP
Jessica Nunez, Assistant Dean for Student Development and Diversity
Yoko Takebayshi, Senior Psychologist
Vivian Taylor, Vice President of Community Development and Chief of Staff

REMINDER OF HONORS ANNOUNCED AT MAY 3 FACULTY MEETING

Kimberley Johnson, Political Science, and Monica Miller, English, received tenure.

Congratulations to Alexander Alberro, Art History, for his promotion to Professor of Art History; Gail Archer to Professor of Professional Practice; and Javier Perez-Zapatero to Senior Associate.

Anne Prescott, English, received the Barnard Commendation for Excellence in Teaching Award. Severin Fowles, Anthropology, received the Gladys Brooks Junior Faculty Excellence in Teaching Award.

Professor Reshmi Mukherjee, Physics & Astronomy, has been appointed to the endowed chair honoring Helen Goodhard Altschul, succeeding Anne Prescott, Professor of English.

Rachel McDermott, Asian and Middle Eastern Cultures, and Lesley Sharp, Anthropology, were named to the Ann Whitney Olin Foundation Chairs.

Kristina Milnor, Classics, and Christian Rojas, Chemistry were named as the inaugural holders of the Tow Professorships for Distinguished Scholars and Practitioners.